THE SKIES ARE BRIGHTENING

The Yellow Fever Scare is About Over.

GOOD NEWS YESTERDAY

No New Cases or Deaths at the Soldiers' Home or Phoenix—Encouraging Telegrams From Marine Hospital Officials—Asylum Offered to Refugees, Many of Whom are Anxious to Return—Norfolk's Strict Quarantine.

Rifts appeared yesterday in the clouds which have overhung this city, Portsmouth and Berkeley since Sunday night, and the people were gratified by a glimpse of the silver linings. About 9 a. m. the Virginia-Pilot received a 'phone message from the Newport News quarantine office that no deaths or new cases of yellow fever had occurred at the Soldiers' Home since the last report, and that nine of the patients in the hospital had been transferred to the convalescent ward. Late yesterday afternoon Dr. Wadlin, of the Marine Hospital, wired this paper as follows from Fort Monroe: "Situation at Phoenix and Soldiers' Home reassuring. Nothing in Hampton so far." (Signed) "WADLIN, Surgeon M. H. C."

THE LOCAL AUTHORITIES.

Acting upon the principle that forewarned is forearmed, the authorities here will continue the excellent precautionary work inaugurated until the last vestige of fever disappears from the Home and Phoenix, and Surgeon General Wyman, of the Marine Hospital Service, gives both places a clean bill of health.

NO DANGER ON THIS SIDE.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Herald yesterday wired a Seaboard Air Line official here as follows:

Washington, D. C., Aug. 3, 1899. Dr. Wyman thinks he has the situation well in hand. Latent of another day without any spread is most encouraging. Every day lessens the liability of the disease getting outside of the city. Report from Norfolk and Portsmouth shows no danger there who were exposed to the disease. It is not believed that there is any danger at either place.

WHAT DR. WYMAN SAYS.

Surgeon General Walter Wyman, of the Marine Hospital Service, is in full accord with the precautions being taken by the Norfolk quarantine authorities, as will be shown from the following statement by him:

"I deem this measure quite as important just now as cleaning of the cities to which infection might extend. It is a proper precaution to take, but need not cause unnecessary alarm. Visitors from the localities mentioned should be kept under medical observation for from eight to ten days. Development of fever of any sort during that period should be sufficient cause for isolating the case and notifying the health authorities."

"Fortunately the area of infection at Hampton and Phoenix is believed to be very limited one. Nevertheless some persons from that region have been exposed, and in from three to ten days might give evidence of fever. Now if such a person should be promptly isolated, there would be no excuse for the disease spreading. It is the duty of all citizens to take cognizance of these facts and to act accordingly."

"People who in the past month have been visitors at Hampton, simply passing through the grounds, would not need to be exposed to infection. But people who have been there, there a greater or less time are the ones who should be watched, just as is now being done by the local health officers here in Washington."

DR. SMITH IN CHARGE HERE.

Dr. A. C. Smith, Passed Assistant Surgeon Marine Hospital Service, arrived in the city yesterday from Rochester, N. Y., where he has been on a leave of absence. Dr. Smith immediately took charge of the Marine Hospital office here, and appointed Dr. P. St. L. Moore, of Norfolk, Assistant Surgeon in charge of Craney Island, Norfolk's detention station.

It is Dr. Smith's opinion that the few persons who have taken fright and fled from the fever are unnecessarily alarmed.

NORFOLK WILL SEND PROVISIONS.

Norfolk's merchants having been furnishing provisions for the Soldiers' Home at Hampton, a conference was held yesterday between Mayor Johnston, the health authorities, Mr. M. B. Crowell, of the Old Dominion Steamship Company, and several merchants, to arrange for the transfer of provisions from this city to the Home, Phoenix, Hampton and Old Point. The transfer will begin this morning by the Old Dominion line. An open, uninhabited barge will be anchored between Craney Island and Lambert's Point, and the provisions will be carried from Norfolk on the steamer Luray. From there they will be taken to the points named by the steamer Hatteras, which will fly a yellow flag and carry an inspector to be appointed by Dr. Lynch, Assistant Quarantine officer. The merchants represented at the conference were Messrs. Hough & Cruser, Hobbs & Keeling, Williams Bros., W. J. Dillworth & Co., C. W. Pentress & Co., George H. Dawes and G. R. Barrett.

NORFOLK'S STRICT QUARANTINE.

As an instance of Norfolk's strict quarantine, the following from yesterday's Richmond Dispatch is worth reading:

"Norfolk's quarantine seems to be as strict as it is possible to make it. Yesterday morning Miss Fitchett, a young lady of Norfolk, who had come to this city from Old Point, at Buckroe Beach, hoping to evade the quarantine which Norfolk has established against Old Point, boarded the Norfolk and Western train for home."

"All went well until Tucker's was reached about nine miles west of Portsmouth. At that point quarantine inspectors entered the train. Miss Fitchett was in fear and trembling. But she could not tell a story when the inspector asked her where she came from. She had to tell him that she had been staying at Old Point, and that she had been in Richmond not two days."

"She had to get off the train. So did about two dozen more persons—male and female—who were trying to get into Norfolk from the infected district by way of Richmond."

ASYLUM OFFERED REFUGEES.

Mayor Wirt Dunlap, of Blacksburg, yesterday sent Mayor Johnston the following dispatch: "Blacksburg would be glad to entertain some of your refugees."

The Mayor replied by wire as follows: "Please accept thanks of the people of Norfolk for your kind offer. Fever has been confined to the Soldiers' Home and there is no fear of the disease reaching this city."

IMPORTANT ACTION

Taken Yesterday at Conference With Quarantine Commissioners.

Lieutenant Commander Adams, of the Naval Reserves, Placed in Command of a Fleet of Eight Vessels.

At a meeting of the Norfolk Medical Society, held Tuesday, a committee, consisting of Drs. H. M. Nash and Southgate Leigh, was appointed to wait on Governor Tyler and request him to assign the steamers of the oyster navy to duty in quarantining against the infected district.

The steamer Chesapeake, Captain Hudgins, reported for duty, and has been assigned to the coast north of Old Point Comfort. The steamer Accomack, Captain J. H. Hall, D. D., of Park Avenue Baptist Church, The remains were laid to rest in Elmwood Cemetery.

MR. JOHN L. WILLIAMS.

The obsequies of Mr. John L. Williams, who departed this life at his home, No. 215 Gibbs avenue, Wednesday morning, was held from the residence at 9 o'clock yesterday morning. The services were conducted by Rev. J. J. Hall, D. D., of Park Avenue Baptist Church. His remains were taken to his former home in Princess Anne county for interment in the family burial ground. The deceased was in the 25th year of his age.

DEATH OF MRS. EMILY WALLACE.

The funeral of Mrs. Emily Wallace, aged 88 years, who died at her home in Henderson, N. C., yesterday morning, will occur in Norfolk this morning. The remains will arrive over the Seaboard Air Line this morning at 7:55 o'clock. The interment will be in Elmwood Cemetery on arrival of the train. Rev. Dr. Lacy will conduct the funeral at the grave.

A Narrow Escape From Serious Accident.

There came near being a serious accident on the county road, a short distance this side of the City Park, Wednesday evening. A large wagon being pulled by a team returning from the county, filled with a pleasure party, attempted to turn out of the railroad crossing at a sharp angle, and in doing so got immediately in the front of a street car approaching from another direction on the opposite track. The driver got his horse out of the way, but the approaching car struck the vehicle causing much excitement among its occupants, and of the ladies fainting. But for the timely action of the driver, a serious accident would no doubt have resulted. However, the force of the collision was sufficient to cause the car-fender to double up.

Tug Rescue on the Ways.

The Merritt Wrecking Company's tug Rescue, one of the largest wrecking tugs in the world, is hauled out on Colonna's railway at Berkeley. The Rescue has on board a complete hoisting and electric light plant. The plant is used on long trips in equatorial waters for making the ice needed by the wrecking crew. Her work carries her to far-distant waters, to the shores of Africa, or any other part of the world where she may be called.

"Hampton Roads" Held Up.

The steamer Hampton Roads, which has been in dock at Hampton for several days, was taken in charge by the patrol fleet in Hampton Roads yesterday. There were a number of passengers, presumably from Hampton, on board the steamer, and she had started to land them here, according to the reports. She was taken in charge by one of the police patrol tugs, and is now anchored off Lambert's Point, the quarantine officials refusing to allow her to proceed.

Park Committee Meeting.

The Park Committee of Councils met yesterday and opened the bids for the erection of a green-house at the City Park. It was decided not to accept any bid at present, the erection of a green-house being deferred.

A sub-committee was appointed looking to the securing of music for the park. This will likely be done before the month is over.

Biggest Freighter that Floats.

The big iron freight ship Samoa, said to be the largest ship devoted exclusively to freight that floats, reached the Norfolk and Western elevator pier in this city Wednesday. She is an East Adamant, and ordinarily runs between Liverpool and Calcutta. Her capacity is 300,000 bushels of grain. Her crew is composed of 150 men. She will be here loading several days.
